

ONLY A SHADOW OF HIMSELF.

How an Old-Time Admirer Speaks of the Unwieldy King.

PARNELL WAVES HIS OWN HEADGEAR.

He Seems to Act in a Doze—Some of His Actions—Tanner's Awful Expressions—Healey's Arrows.

[Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett.] KILKENNY, Dec. 20.—[New York Herald Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—Parnell is a changed man.

To understand the transformation which has taken place one must follow him as I have done in the last week or ten days.

Last night I met a man who had not seen Parnell for years. "So that is Parnell," he said.

"Have you seen him before?" I inquired. "Often," was the answer, "but not for five years until tonight."

"Well, you recognize him, I suppose?" "Yes," was the reply, "but he had been pointed out in the street as Parnell I should not have recognized him."

Whenever he rises to talk and is cheered he uncovers and swings his headgear around his head. Whenever he finishes and wants to go to bed he takes off his cap and swings it in the air.

"Parnell may be looking straight at you when he says 'hear, hear,' in praise of himself, but he does not see you, at least, that is the impression he gives."

"He must have been drinking," said a gentleman who stood near me. Drunk or out of his mind seemed to be the general conclusion.

"A Sermon to Priests." DUBLIN, Dec. 20.—[Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]—The Freeman's Journal says the priests who were present at the Castle Comer gathering at which Parnell was assaulted, said it was not time that was thrown into Parnell's eyes, and said: "How do you know that?"

"It was Lime." KILKENNY, Dec. 20.—Parnell's physicians have issued a formal statement declaring the violence thrown into Parnell's eyes real, and that the danger of permanent injury to his sight is not yet over.

"A SCRABBLE FOR LAND." Water Reserve Lands in Wisconsin Restored to the Public Domain. WAUSAU, Wis., Dec. 20.—When the United States land office opened at 9 o'clock this morning the court house square was crowded with people.

"Fatal Fight on a Steamer." EVANSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 20.—A serious fight occurred on the steamer Big Sandy this afternoon. They were taking the crew of the wrecked steamer Ohio to Cincinnati and some fellows made a raid on the cook's quarters.

THE GERMAN COMMUNAL BILL.

A Serious Crisis Threatened by the Dispute Over It.

THE SANDTAG LIABLE TO BE DISSOLVED.

A Vigorous Denial Made That the Emperor is Financially Embarrassed Because of His Recent Journeys.

[Copyright 1890, by New York Associated Press.] BERLIN, Dec. 20.—The dispute over the government's communal bill threatens a serious crisis. Minister of the Interior Herffordt, finding a majority of the committee bent upon amendments preserving several feudal privileges which the bill aimed to abolish, conferred with his colleagues, who authorized him to inform the committee that if the landtag supported the amendments, it would be immediately dissolved.

The progressists rejected at the prospect of dissolution, but it is not thought the conservatives will risk a general election. Prince William of Nassau, heir to the throne of Luxembourg, and the richest among European princes after the czar, which is reported will be betrothed to Princess Margarethe, sister of the emperor. The marriage would be a step toward the ultimate absorption of Luxembourg by Germany.

The emperor is financially embarrassed through expenses incurred on his journeys to European courts. "The report that his civil list is to be increased to meet the costs of the journeys is also denied, although the emperor holds that the list is not sufficient to meet the expenses of his journeys to the development of the imperial position."

The number of American physicians who have been waiting here trying to get the Koch lymph is rapidly diminishing. Prof. Ogden has now treated seventy-nine patients. Four, suffering from advanced phthisis died, three left the hospital much improved and twenty-four are progressing favorably.

"He will first of all try the effect of reconciliation," said my friend, "but that, as you know, is impossible. O'Brien does not care how wide the chasm is. Fire and water are not more antagonistic than we are now."

"But think of Healy and Tanner," I mildly suggested. "You can never hold them in, but Parnell weighs all his words and knows what he is about. He has denounced us to the Irish people as having sold ourselves for English gold."

"In any case, how are you going to smash Parnell with his thirty followers in the house?" "Ah, that's the puzzle," said the colleague, shrugging his shoulders, "but I rather fancy he will give in, after a bit. The magnet that drew him to Eltham will perhaps be strong enough to draw him to Paris."

"That is the growing opinion also of leading Gladstonians, though they would not like to put names to it. I met them on the steps of the reform club today. In spite of the snow storm, we exchanged a few words. He is a well known member of parliament and devoted to the old man."

"Things look bad, very bad," he admitted. "We shall never get the people to believe in home rule again. Once bit, twice shy. This is an awful row. Ireland staggers at all. Look at the bitter speeches Parnell is making against England. We are English wolves it seems."

"Not quite in harmony with the union of hearts," I suggested. "Both the union of hearts," cried the liberal fellow-member impatiently, "what I am thinking of is how in the deuce shall we save ourselves if we give up home rule. What a lot of fools we shall look if we don't. We shall look still more foolish after the next general election. Besides Gladstone is firm and will stick to this question now."

"Not if he sees it will beat him," I respectfully suggested. The gentleman accepted this as a liberal fellow-member impatiently, "what I am thinking of is how in the deuce shall we save ourselves if we give up home rule. What a lot of fools we shall look if we don't. We shall look still more foolish after the next general election. Besides Gladstone is firm and will stick to this question now."

"The execution of Mrs. Peary, which was to have taken place on Tuesday next, has been postponed by order of the home secretary to allow an investigation of the prisoner's sanity, evidence being furnished showing that on four occasions the woman has attempted suicide, and that she is subject to fits of epilepsy. Dr. Forbes Winslow, who has studied the case, is convinced that if Mrs. Peary did commit the murder she was not responsible at the time for the action. The woman's name is in everybody's mouth. It creates quite as much sensation as the Maybrick murder."

THE SCENE FILLED WITH ICE—Baron Hirsch's Horse Sale.

[Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett.] PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

WAITING FOR DEVELOPMENTS.

No Material Change in the Situation at Pine Ridge.

HOSTILES AS OBSTINATE AS EVER.

One More Effort to Be Made by the Military Authorities at a Peaceable Settlement of the Difficulties.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Dec. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Dec. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Dec. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Dec. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Dec. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Dec. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Dec. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Dec. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Dec. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Dec. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Dec. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Dec. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

PARLIAN GOSSIP.

The Scene Filled with Ice—Baron Hirsch's Horse Sale.

[Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett.] PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

The scene filled with ice—Baron Hirsch's horse sale. PARIS, Dec. 20.—[New York Cable.—Special to THE BEE.]—The work of rustling up four or five hundred friendly Indians to make another effort at a peaceful settlement with the bad lands crowd is still going on.

FRANCE HAS SOME FAVORITE CANDIDATES TO SUCCEED LEO.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The tariff committee is hard at work. Nearly every alteration enhances the duties in the proposed bill.

A continuation of the modus Vivendi concerning Newfoundland has been definitely arranged with England under the distinct stipulation that the English government shall settle the difficulty during the interval with or without the assent of the Newfoundland parliament.

The question of the suppression of Cardinal Lavigne's salary on the ground that he had occupied himself with politics, was discussed by the senate. The minister of justice defended the cardinal, but his remarks showed a strong desire for the establishment of an entente with the Vatican.

The next election of a pope appears an early probability and the whole influence of France will be directed to the selection of a cardinal favorable to the republic. The most satisfactory candidates are Lavigne, Zigliara, Raffaele Monaco, Lavalletta, and Gibbons of America. Gibbons' implied treatment of republican countries makes him the favorite candidate after Lavigne.

He Goes Forty-Five Days Without Anything to Eat. NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Giovanni Succi's fast of forty-five days terminated at 8:15 this evening in the presence of an audience of 400. The worst lack of energy, trouble and discomfort during the fast was at 5 o'clock today, during which his pain was so acute that it was feared he would collapse, but his indomitable will carried him through.

The Washington dispatches in yesterday's Bee, received this noon, to the effect that congress wanted and would uphold the wiping out of the hostiles by the military, made a great impression here throughout both the agency and camp, particularly the latter.

Sitting Bull's Ghost Appears. PINE RIDGE, S. D., Dec. 20.—A ranchman in a day from the Bad River reports that the hitherto peaceable semi-civilized tribe of Two Kettle Sioux have begun a wild ghost dance. Night before last some of the bucks, when returning home, claimed to have seen a white figure on top of a bluff.

Surplus Lands Offered Restored. WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Secretary Noble has withdrawn the orders suspending the approval of the final adjustment of land grants in favor of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad company and the Wisconsin Central railroad company.

A Discredited Rumor. PIERRE, S. D., Dec. 20.—George Laplant came in today with the rumor that Indians had raided the town of Midland, in Nowlin county, night before last, and that a brisk skirmish ensued, the Indians afterwards escaping to the bad lands. The report is discredited here.

Minnesota's Constitution Amended. ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 20.—Governor Merriam has decided to issue a proclamation declaring the adoption by the people of the constitutional amendment making a verdict by five-sixths of a jury in civil action valid. This decision has been reached on the advice of the attorney general that the amendment is in accordance with the constitution.

Pat Killen's Injuries. ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 20.—Pat Killen, winner of last night's heavy-weight fight, his dangerously ill at his home on Eleventh street, the result of injuries received in the contest. When Referee Moore awarded the fight to Killen in the second round on a foul Sheehy blow at his antagonist like a wild bear, he threw him, hitting him twice, one on the chest and the other in the calf of the right leg. The patient is under a doctor's care. The wounds are much inflamed and serious results are feared from blood-poisoning.

An Ex-Bank President Arrested. NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Edmund Miles, ex-president of the Tradesman's National bank, was arrested today on an order issued in a suit by Elizabeth Parret to recover $24,000 cash and chattels of which she claims he defrauded her.

VERY PERPLEXING PROBLEM.

Difficulties Surround the Republican Caucus Financial Bill.

A WIDE DIFFERENCE IN OPINIONS.

Legislation of Some Kind on the Subject of the Utmost Importance to the Country at the Present Time.

WASHINGTON BUREAU THE OMAHA BEE, 313 FOURTEENTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 20. It is hardly likely that there ever was a measure of the utmost importance to the country at large which was surrounded by so many perplexities as those which confront the republican caucus financial bill. Although the bill which is assigned for the relief of the existing financial strain was adopted by the republican caucus with practical unanimity at its last meeting, and in spite of the fact that it was yesterday reported from the finance committee back to the senate, this measure has by no means the entire support of the republican members of the finance committee.

It is hardly likely that there ever was a measure of the utmost importance to the country at large which was surrounded by so many perplexities as those which confront the republican caucus financial bill. Although the bill which is assigned for the relief of the existing financial strain was adopted by the republican caucus with practical unanimity at its last meeting, and in spite of the fact that it was yesterday reported from the finance committee back to the senate, this measure has by no means the entire support of the republican members of the finance committee.

It is hardly likely that there ever was a measure of the utmost importance to the country at large which was surrounded by so many perplexities as those which confront the republican caucus financial bill. Although the bill which is assigned for the relief of the existing financial strain was adopted by the republican caucus with practical unanimity at its last meeting, and in spite of the fact that it was yesterday reported from the finance committee back to the senate, this measure has by no means the entire support of the republican members of the finance committee.

It is hardly likely that there ever was a measure of the utmost importance to the country at large which was surrounded by so many perplexities as those which confront the republican caucus financial bill. Although the bill which is assigned for the relief of the existing financial strain was adopted by the republican caucus with practical unanimity at its last meeting, and in spite of the fact that it was yesterday reported from the finance committee back to the senate, this measure has by no means the entire support of the republican members of the finance committee.

It is hardly likely that there ever was a measure of the utmost importance to the country at large which was surrounded by so many perplexities as those which confront the republican caucus financial bill. Although the bill which is assigned for the relief of the existing financial strain was adopted by the republican caucus with practical unanimity at its last meeting, and in spite of the fact that it was yesterday reported from the finance committee back to the senate, this measure has by no means the entire support of the republican members of the finance committee.

It is hardly likely that there ever was a measure of the utmost importance to the country at large which was surrounded by so many perplexities as those which confront the republican caucus financial bill. Although the bill which is assigned for the relief of the existing financial strain was adopted by the republican caucus with practical unanimity at its last meeting, and in spite of the fact that it was yesterday reported from the finance committee back to the senate, this measure has by no means the entire support of the republican members of the finance committee.

It is hardly likely that there ever was a measure of the utmost importance to the country at large which was surrounded by so many perplexities as those which confront the republican caucus financial bill. Although the bill which is assigned for the relief of the existing financial strain was adopted by the republican caucus with practical unanimity at its last meeting, and in spite of the fact that it was yesterday reported from the finance committee back to the senate, this measure has by no means the entire support of the republican members of the finance committee.

It is hardly likely that there ever was a measure of the utmost importance to the country at large which was surrounded by so many perplexities as those which confront the republican caucus financial bill. Although the bill which is assigned for the relief of the existing financial strain was adopted by the republican caucus with practical unanimity at its last meeting, and in spite of the fact that it was yesterday reported from the finance committee back to the senate, this measure has by no means the entire support of the republican members of the finance committee.

It is hardly likely that there ever was a measure of the utmost importance to the country at large which was surrounded by so many perplexities as those which confront the republican caucus financial bill. Although the bill which is assigned for the relief of the existing financial strain was adopted by the republican caucus with practical unanimity at its last meeting, and in spite of the fact that it was yesterday reported from the finance committee back to the senate, this measure has by no means the entire support of the republican members of the finance committee.

It is hardly likely that there ever was a measure of the utmost importance to the country at large which was surrounded by so many perplexities as those which confront the republican caucus financial bill. Although the bill which is assigned for the relief of the existing financial strain was adopted by the republican caucus with practical unanimity at its last meeting, and in spite of the fact that it was yesterday reported from the finance committee back to the senate, this measure has by no means the entire support of the republican members of the finance committee.

It is hardly likely that there ever was a measure of the utmost importance to the country at large which was surrounded by so many perplexities as those which confront the republican caucus financial bill. Although the bill which is assigned for the relief of the existing financial strain was adopted by the republican caucus with practical unanimity at its last meeting, and in spite of the fact that it was yesterday reported from the finance committee back to the senate, this measure has by no means the entire support of the republican members of the finance committee.

It is hardly likely that there ever was a measure of the utmost importance to the country at large which was surrounded by so many perplexities as those which confront the republican caucus financial bill. Although the bill which is assigned for the relief of the existing financial strain was adopted by the republican caucus with practical unanimity at its last meeting, and in spite of the fact that it was yesterday reported from the finance committee back to the senate, this measure has by no means the entire support of the republican members of the finance committee.